

Interest Rates Are Incredibly Low

Mortgage rates are at a 50 year low!!! Mortgage applications have jumped up 10% in the last week from one year ago. The housing market will continue to be a positive influence for the broader economy.

With the real estate market now entering the spring home buying season the next few weeks are going to be key..

- Get Locked in for a mortgage rate
- Refinance now to save hundreds of dollars on your monthly mortgage payment
- Be the trend setter. buy or sell your home before everyone else decides to do the same thing.
